

Materia

Materia is an interdisciplinary concept store which promotes design-oriented experiences that revolve around crafts, publications and objects. We're looking to nourish everyday details.

Curatorship is constantly evolving, we change as we select national and international brands with a common purpose; reflect our conviction for details, a fundamental inspiration for the soul.

Brands<sup>(b)</sup>

Our offering reaches over objects built on fine design, art, photography and graphic publications as well as basicwear apparel pieces, accessories and products for the everyday life, such as homebound and personal care products.

Starting dialogues between different ideas, entities and disciplines with the sole purpose of creating something that will nurture our lives, minds and spirits.
